

Birthday Parties at the Aquarium of the Pacific

Frequently Asked Questions

What time do I check in?

Please check in 15 minutes prior to your birthday party start time. Plan to arrive early to allow time for traffic and parking.

Where do I check in?

Please check in with Aquarium staff at the "Will Call/ Group Check-In" booth in the front plaza of the Aquarium. Once you have checked in, an Aquarium educator will greet you & your guests in the front plaza near the tree 5 minutes before your party begins. Everyone will then be escorted to the birthday party location.

What is included during the birthday party?

Your birthday party program will be 1 1/2 hours long, which consists of:

- One hour program with animal touch time, birthday games, bio-fact discovery, and a take home craft project.
- 1/2 hour free time in the classroom for the birthday celebration
- A visit from an Aquarium Costume Character
- Your guests have admission to the Aquarium before and after your party.

Will there be time to open presents?

The last half hour of your party is for the birthday celebration. This time can be used to open presents if you would like.

What is the maximum number of guests allowed?

45

Can I bring my own birthday cake?

You sure can! You are welcome to bring a birthday cake for the last half hour of the party. You will need to provide your own utensils and plates as well. No other outside food or drink may be brought into the Aquarium.

Can I bring food and drinks?

Lunch items, snacks, and drinks are available for purchase. With the exception of a birthday cake, no outside food or drinks may be brought into the Aquarium. If you choose to bring a birthday cake, you will need to provide utensils, plates, and napkins for the cake.

Can I bring candles for the birthday cake?

For safety reasons and to avoid setting off our fire alarms, candles are not allowed in the Aquarium.

Can I bring balloons and other decorations for the classroom?

The classroom will be decorated for your party, but for the safety of our animals, balloons are not allowed in the Aquarium. However, you are welcome to bring other decorations if you would like. If you would like to bring your own decorations, you may access the room 15 minutes before your party begins.
