Children's Day Festival

Celebrate the children in your life at the Aquarium's largest festival!

In honor of Dia del Nino (Children's Day), the Aquarium hosts a special festival celebrating the amazing talents of kids of all cultures. Travel the globe in a day as you watch children perform music and dance from Mexico, Africa, the Pacific Islands, Japan, Cambodia, China, a Native American nation, and beyond. Experience kids' arts & crafts, interactive music, caricatures, and face-painting—all included with admission! Discover our NEW international children's parade at 1 pm. on Saturday, and join us in honoring our 2010 Young Hero on Sunday at 1 pm. As part of the festival stroll our waterfront, and join the Art Miles mural project that will be displayed next to the Great Pyramids in Egypt. As you paint, enjoy live music on Rainbow Harbor and at Shoreline Village, and visit cultural displays and vendors.
