

Benefitting the Aquarium of the Pacific

SEA FARE

Saturday, October 16, 2010

EVENING PROGRAM

LETTER FROM THE SEA FARE COMMITTEE

Dear Sea Farer,

On behalf of the Aquarium of the Pacific, thank you for celebrating with us this evening and for being an important part of our Aquarium life!

OUR 7TH ANNUAL SEA FARE IS KICKING IT UP A NOTCH!

With a record number of the finest restaurants, wineries, bakeries, and breweries on hand for tastings, over one hundred items in our silent and live auction, and an even more value-added "Go Fish" game, it won't matter if you are coming to satisfy your discriminating culinary palate or just enjoying the ambiance, you are guaranteed to walk away smiling!

It goes without saying that none of the evening's festivities would be as successful without the support of our food providers, event sponsors, auction item donors, volunteers and, of course, you. Your participation is vital to making Sea Fare the successful community event it is, so thank you!

By joining us tonight and bidding generously on auction items, you are helping us reach our education and conservation goals. Thank you ever so much for helping us "to instill a sense of wonder, respect, and stewardship for the Pacific Ocean, its inhabitants, and ecosystems."

Best fishes,
Your 2010 Sea Fare Committee

Stewards of the sea

Leafy seadragons feed on mysid shrimp and other small crustaceans, and swallow their prey whole as they do not have teeth or a stomach.

In support of the wonders of the ocean and the creatures that call it home, Wells Fargo Capital Finance is glad to sponsor Aquarium of the Pacific's Seventh annual Sea Fare event. By teaching us to extend our conservation efforts from the land to the sea, we can all help maintain the welfare of our oceans and our planet.
