

Sustainable Seafood Day

presented by Aquarium of the Pacific's

If you love seafood and want to learn how your choices affect our ocean, you will not want to miss our 6th Annual Sustainable Seafood Day on Saturday, March 6, 2010.

Enjoy cooking demonstrations by top chefs, sample delicacies ranging from cabernet dusted escolar to fresh caught wild pacific albacore, and leave with a plethora of recipes and culinary tips. Visit booths by sustainable seafood organizations, and discover what makes some fish choices, fishing practices, and farming techniques more healthy for our ocean than others. Sustainable seafood menu items will also be offered in Café Scuba and cookbooks will be available in our gift store.

Saturday, March 6, 2010

festival hours 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
