

SEA FARE

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015
7:00-11:00 PM

Help Support Aquarium Education, Conservation, and Animal Care Programs!

LETTER FROM OUR SEA FARE COMMITTEE

Welcome Fellow Sea Farer,

Thank you for diving into the fun at the Aquarium of the Pacific's twelfth annual Sea Fare fundraiser! We hope you are ready for the party of the year and a culinary journey you won't forget as you sip and savor your way through the Aquarium galleries.

The following pages serve as your guide to an evening of fun, food, and philanthropy while celebrating the Aquarium at this annual fall fundraiser. The auction tables are swimming with incredibly unique items and experiences that are only a bid away. You can also purchase a fishing "permit" at the Information Desk for your chance to make a big catch at the Go Fish opportunity game, where everyone leaves a winner. All proceeds from tonight's fundraiser will help support the Aquarium's numerous education, conservation, and animal care programs.

Sea Fare is made possible by your generous support and the contributions of the Aquarium's friends. Please join us in thanking our restaurants, chefs, wineries, breweries, bakeries, event sponsors, auction donors, volunteers, and the wonderful staff of the Aquarium of the Pacific for their contribution to tonight's festivities.

We hope you experience a night to remember, and thank you for being a part of our Aquarium family!

Warmly,

Your 2015 Sea Fare Committee

THE PACIFIC VISIONS CAMPAIGN IS UNDERWAY. It will create the most powerful educational platform for communicating the challenges and opportunities of the World Ocean.

Rendering of new Pacific Visions wing

The new Pacific Visions wing will explore the challenges our ocean faces and the opportunities it holds. It will embolden the Aquarium's message, it will empower our visitors to do more for our planet, and it will redefine what an aquarium can and should do.

Pacific Visions will create a contemporary venue for exploring science. An immersive theater with seating for 300 that features cutting-edge digital technology will tell epic stories about ocean exploration, communicate the science behind complex oceanic phenomena, and investigate urgent environmental issues.

The actions we take today will determine the future for people, animals, and the planet.

Learn more about the Pacific Visions Campaign and attend an Open House!

- The Open Houses are held in the Watershed Classroom at the Aquarium every 4th Saturday at 10:00 a.m. through November, 2016.
- Enjoy a continental breakfast, education programs, and a private behind-the-scenes tour.
- For more information or to RSVP to an Open House, please call (562) 951-5386 or email aadler@lbaop.org.

IN CELEBRATION OF THE FOUNDER OF SEA FARE

Jeanne Brodeur

Jeanne Brodeur served as the Vice President of Development from 2003 until 2009 when we lost our dear mentor and friend after a valiant battle with cancer. Under her leadership, she created a culture of philanthropy and established many programs that are still supporting the Aquarium today. Her love of entertaining and her passion for the culinary arts led her to create the first Sea Fare event in 2004. Her legacy continues today as Sea Fare continues to grow and thrive. Her friends and family from the Aquarium, from Emerson College, and from across the country established the Jeanne Brodeur Scholarship Fund to honor her commitment to education, children, and the ocean. Tonight, please raise a glass and toast to Jeanne's extraordinary life!

With special thanks to Ira Goldstone for his continuing support of Sea Fare and the Jeanne Brodeur Scholarship Fund

A photograph of a tropical garden. In the foreground, a large, dark, weathered stone Moai statue stands on a bed of white gravel. The statue has a large, rounded head and a simple, carved face. Behind the statue, a lush green lawn is visible. In the background, there is a thatched-roof hut, possibly a traditional Fijian structure, surrounded by various tropical plants and trees. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.
