Staff Rate of Pay Per Hour:

Production companies are responsible for arranging the pay-roll of Aquarium staff members, and payment must be remitted in a timely manner. The Aquarium staff must be paid from the time that person arrives until the entire film crew leaves or is relieved of duty by another Aquarium staff member. If production is cancelled and Aquarium staff has already been assigned, it is your responsibility to notify the Aquarium marketing department at least 24 hours before the planned shoot schedule. If not, the production company agrees to pay up to four hours minimum call-out to any personnel assigned.

$100/hour per staff member for individual staff time up to 8 hours (Overtime rate: $150 / Double time rate: $200)

- Onsite Marketing Personnel
- Senior Security Officer/Security Officer
- Animal Husbandry Personnel
- Dive Safety Officer/Diver
- Facilities Personnel
- Life Support/Lighting Personnel
- Audio/Visual Personnel

One-hour minimum required per each staff member assigned to the shoot. For shoots that run 15 minutes past an hour, a 30-minute staff rate of $50 will apply. For shoots that run more than 15 minutes past the 30 minutes, the full-hour rate of $100 will apply. For individual staff time over 8 hours per day, the overtime rate will apply (time and a half). For individual staff time over 12 hours, the double time rate will apply.
